On All Winter Goods

At EARNEST'S.

Bargains on Every Side at This Big Store.

WHILE business has far exceeded any previous year, and this Fall's business has been fully up to our expectations, we yet have a very heavy stock and we realize that in order to reduce same we must cut the price, and we have used the knife freely on all Winter Goods. Great Reductions in DRESS GOODS, SILKS, TRIMMINGS, SHIRT WAISTS, COATS, DRESSES, SUITS, UNDERWEAR, and many other articles too numerous to mention.

Thanking all for their past liberal patronage and confidence, which we will do our utmost to keep, and wishing all a happy and prosperous New Year, We are,

Yours truly,

City Happenings and Personal Mention.

C. W. Norton of Grove Hall, Crescent City, was a visitor in Palatka yesterday.

C. C. Alvers of Sisco, a well-known timber and turpentine operator, was in the city Wednesday.

C. L. Turnipseed and wife of Union Springs, Ala., were registered at the Satoaga hotel this week.

T. J. Joyner, of Grandin, a former member of the county board, was a visitor in the city this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albion Devereux of Jacksonville spent a few days in the city this week visiting relatives.

Judge E. Noble Calhoun has been employed as counsel for the new board of county commissioners for the year 1911.

J. Charles and Dr. G. L. Sippell, leading men of the Florhamo section, were business visitors in the city Wednesday.

G. L. Knight of Florhamo had business to bring him before the new board of County Commissioners on Wednesday.

The Guild of St. Mark church will hold a cake sale at Ackerman-Stewart's drug store Saturday Jan. 7th, beginning at ten a. m.

C. C. Curtis, who has been with M. S. Brown's clothing store during the holidays, returned to his home in Titusville on Tuesday.

Rev. Father Barry expects to go to Crescent City Sunday noon to hold evening service in the new Catholic church at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lewis and family of Yates Center, Kan., arrived in the city last week and have apartments at Mrs. A. C. Weaver's. They will remain for the winter.

J. L. Wilkinson drew the $3 prize at M. S. Brown's clock unveiling contest last Tuesday evening. Next Tuesday evening will be the last unveiling of this series, and $10 will be given out in three prizes of $5, $3 and $2.

At the Methodist parsonage last Wednesday afternoon, Rev. H. Dutill united in marriage Mr. John F. Turner of Sanford, Fla., and Miss Myrtle Leila Rigby of Charleston, S. C. The contracting parties were young people who obtained their license to wed in DeLand.

The Wilson Cypress Co. made a present of $50 to the Palatka Fire Department last week, and at a meeting of the department last Friday night the boys passed a resolution in which they said some mighty nice things about the Wilson company, and thanked them for the gift.

Mrs. R. A. McCroan of Tallahassee has been spending a few days in the city, the guest of relatives and of Mrs. L. S. Knight. Mrs. McCroan will be best remembered in Palatka as Mrs. Jennie Drennan, who, prior to her marriage, was the efficient station window clerk in the Palatka postoffice.

Dr. J. C. Chandler who recently settled for the practice of medicine in Palatka, has offices on the Morgan building. Dr. Chandler has made a most excellent impression not only upon the physicians, but all of the people of the place who have had the pleasure of making his acquaintance.

C. H. Preston of Crescent City, vice-president and general manager of the newly organized Florida Woodenware Co. of this city, was in Palatka a couple of days this week, looking after details of the new factory building. He says the company hopes to have the machinery in running order next month, at which time he expects to remain in Palatka.

J. M. Timmons of Bannerville was in the city this week for the purpose of visiting his son, Willie, an inmate of the Palatka hospital, where he is undergoing treatment for knee trouble. The boy's knee was injured while he was at the bone scraped. Mr. Timmons states that without the aid of kind friends in Palatka he would not have been able to secure this proper medical and surgical attention for the boy, and that he is very grateful to all who came to his assistance.

J. H. Sumler a young white man who gives his home as Coffee county, Ga., was arrested on Lemon street the other day by Chief Varn and Policeman Livingston. He was carrying liquor in flasks. He kept a supply in his room, which he obtained from a Hastings saloon. He was an undoubted example of the best in itinerant bars. He had the goods on him. Justice John E. Marshall held Sumler to the circuit court in $300 bonds, failing to give which he went to jail.

Manager Kalbfeld has been in correspondence with the Sun Bros. (big circus people) with the view of having them open the coming season in this city and from a letter received this week it seems more than probable that they will succeed. In event the circus does open in Palatka it means that 160 members of the company will be here for a week or 10 days for rehearsal, and that their stay, with the live acts in the circus, means much money will be spent with Palatka merchants. The city should encourage the coming of this big aggregation to the extent of rebating the customary license. 'Rab for Kalbfeld.

Gideon Johnson a white resident of Johnson Station, this county, was before Judge Cox this week for an examination into his sanity. Gideon had been acting queerly. A commission consisting of Drs. Welch and Warren, and P. M. Hagan made the examination and their verdict was that Gideon was not insane, and he was discharged. He is not one of the members of the Johnson family for whom the place was named, a fact that would be apparent to any one seeing him. Gideon wears long black dresses and looks queer, and his head does not appear to be ponderous with mental machinery, but it will no doubt please him to learn officially that what he has been working smoothly and without friction.

Walden, the Palatka wizard now traveling in the north writes the News from Ohio that he expects to be in Palatka in a few weeks.

By a resolution unanimously adopted by the democratic executive committee of the county the law permitting only democrats to vote in the primaries next Tuesday will be enforced.

The old board of county commissioners made an appropriation last week of $200 as the county's contribution to an illustrated pamphlet for advertising purposes now being gotten out by the Palatka board of trade.

A little daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Adamson in Jacksonville on New Year's morning. Mrs. Adamson was formerly Miss Emma Cox of this city, and is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. M. I. Cox.

The Orpheum theatre has been closed all the week because of the counter attractions—the Johnny Jones and the Kruse carnivals—but Manager Kalbfeld says he will resume tomorrow night with new pictures and illustrated songs. He also advises that beginning next Monday he will exhibit the finest motion pictures in the south, having secured a license from the Patent Motion Picture Co. which controls the biograph, the Edison, Pathe, Vitagraph, Essanay, Selig, Kalem, and other makes of films with a guarantee not to show a picture ever before exhibited in Palatka. Hereafter when you attend the Orpheum you can be sure of something new in pictures. The latest part of next week the Butterworth Trio—Nabel, Grace and Jack—will be the attractions, in a fine program of comedy, singing and dancing.

Rev. W. L. Foster, D. D., Marianna, preacher.

John Wesley's Wife.
John Wesley married a widow, Mrs. Vizzelle, who grew tired of his restless laborious life and complained. He paid no attention, and from complaint she went on to jealousy, thence to fury. He rebuked her sternly: "Do not any longer contend for mastery, for power, money or praise. Be content to be a private, insignificant person. Of what importance is your character to mankind? If you were buried just now or had never lived, what loss would it be to the cause of God?" She left him, taking with her a large number of his private papers, and he dismissed the subject by writing in his journal: "I did not forsake her. I did not dismiss her. I shall not call her back."

The Wail of the Victim.
"You can't get something for nothing," said the man who affects proverbs.
"No," answered the easy man; "I can't. But the people with whom I do business seem to manage it every now and then."—Exchange.
